Directions by car

Kleinostheim is located east of Frankfurt and can easily be reached by the autobahn from all directions.

Via A45 – Coming from north:
Take the “Kleinostheim” exit and leave the roundabout at the second exit in the direction “Karlstein”. After about 300 meters, turn left at the traffic light onto Lindigstraße which leads to the industrial park. After 100 meters, drive left onto the Reinhard-Heraeus-Ring until you reach the Heraeus premises after 200 meters.

Via A45 – Coming from south:
Take the “Kleinostheim” exit and leave the roundabout at the first exit in the direction “Karlstein”. Leave the second roundabout at the first exit in the direction “Karlstein”, too. After about 300 meters, turn left at the traffic light onto Lindigstraße which leads to the industrial park. After 100 meters, drive left onto the Reinhard-Heraeus-Ring until you reach the Heraeus premises after 200 meters.

Via A3 – Coming from either west or east:
Drive along until you reach the “Seligenstädter Dreieck” and change to the A45. Now follow “Via A45 – Coming from south”.

Directions by bus and train

Kleinostheim is connected to an ICE line via the Frankfurt am Main and Würzburg point of intersection, and can easily be reached using the bus. You can best reach the premises on Reinhard-Heraeus-Ring from Kleinostheim by taking the bus lines 50 and 31 that operate Aschaffenburg. Get off the bus at the “Industriegebiet West, Kleinostheim” stop. For more information on the schedule, please visit the homepage of the Deutsche Bahn (<http://reiseauskunft.bahn.de>).
